Running for political office can be a very exciting and rewarding time for an individual, and we want to make it as easy as possible for you by making sure you are well informed about laws and issues surrounding your candidacy. This gives you some preliminary information to consider before deciding whether or not to pursue elected office.

WHAT IS THE FIRST THING I MUST DO?

Very Important !!! Late filing fees can be quite costly and must be paid out of your personal funds, not your campaign account.

office within 20 days after receipt of the notice of payment due, unless an appeal is made to the Federal Elections Commission pursuant to paragraph (c). All fines are to be paid out of the candidate's personal funds and not the campaign funds. These fines cannot be reported as a campaign expenditure.

TERMINATION REPORTS

Termination reports are due with the Supervisor of Elections office within 90 days of a candidate becoming unopposed, withdrawing from their candidacy, being eliminated, or becoming elected to office.
