

2015 Memorial Day Ceremony

It was truly an honor to have been asked to chair the 2015 Memorial Day Ceremony. With well over 300 people in attendance, it makes one very proud to be a member of this community.

“Our debt to the heroic men and valiant women in the service of our country can never be repaid. They have earned our undying gratitude. America will never forget their sacrifices.” President Harry S Truman

