

2013 FSASE Summer Conference

At the FSASE Summer Conference held June 9-13, Taylor County Supervisor of Elections, Dana Southerland received a certificate for having completed Level II and Level III of the Florida Certified Elections Professional (FCEP) program and Assistant Supervisor of Elections, Janet Thomas received a certificate for having completed Level III. The FCEP program is organized by the Florida Association of Supervisor of Elections and provides Florida election officials and their staff the opportunity to attend election education courses in a vast area of election topics while encouraging the highest level of professionalism.

